

Macro Photography

Macro photography is extreme close-up photography of small subjects and living organisms, making the subject appear greater than life-size.

